EMERGENCY SHELTERS IN ORANGE COUNTY
Emergency shelters provide housing with minimal supportive services for homeless persons that is limited to an occupancy of six months or less

ARMORIES – COLD WEATHER SHELTER PROGRAM
Open during the cold weather months, typically December-April
Santa Ana Armory: 612 E. Warner (Warner/Main)
Fullerton Armory: 400 S. Brookhurst (Brookhurst/Valencia)
Information line: (714) 836-7188 ext. 131
Population served: Families, couples, adults with children, singles
Admission requirement: First come, first serve. No on-site parking.
Length of stay: Overnight from 5:00pm to 6:00am
Services: Hot meals, showers, blanket and warm clothing

CATHOLIC WORKER
316 S. Cypress, Santa Ana, CA 92701
(714) 558-7478
Population served: Homeless women over the age of 18 (no children allowed)
Admission requirement: Must have completed two-week program with Salvation Army
Length of stay: Varies
Services: Meals, showers

FIRST SOUTHERN BAPTIST CHUCH
6801 Western Avenue, Buena Park, CA 90621
(714) 522-7201
(714) 522-7202 (fax)
Population served: Single adults and families
Admission requirement: Homeless, proof of ID
Length of stay: One night
Services: Meals, groceries, counseling, faith-based

PRECIOUS LIFE SHELTER
10881 Reagan Street, Los Alamitos, CA 90720
(562) 431-5025
(562) 430-3997 (fax)
Population served: Pregnant women 18 years and older with no other children
Admission requirement: written proof of pregnancy with due date, ID for age verification, phone interview and individual must work during time at shelter
Length of stay: 30 days
Services: Job training program, meals, showers

SALVATION ARMY HOSPITALITY HOUSE
818 E. Third Street, Santa Ana, CA 92701
(714) 542-9576
(714) 542-5792 (fax)
Population served: Men (18 years and older)
Admission requirement: Must show ID, first come, first serve. Line for admission begins at 2:00pm. Must be in line by 2:30pm. Lottery will occur if there are more people than beds available. Must be able to climb a top bunk. Must be in shelter by 5:00pm after first night.
Length of stay: 2 week stay (30 days between visits). If you miss one night or come to shelter pass 5:00pm, then you cannot obtain services until after 30 days.
Services: Continental breakfast, dinner, and showers

10/2/2013 (Please contact agency for the most up-to-date information regarding service availability.)